

FOR THE LOVE OF THE MEETING

Meetings are central to business. They have rooted themselves in our daily work routines and sometimes they take on a life of their own – we all have those stories! Truly great meetings occur when the technology works, the meeting is managed well and everyone is connected and participating. Unfortunately, meetings in the “truly great” category tend to make up the minority of our experiences. But that’s what we’re here for.

At GoToMeeting, we are passionate about every aspect of meetings and setting up our customers and users for success. We are here to make great meetings the majority, and we do it for the love of the meeting.

01 GOTOMEETING OVERVIEW

The technologies that power your business today are changing at a rate that's hard to keep up with. You have to be faster, smarter and more agile than ever before. Pair that with an influx of Millennial and Gen-Z workers joining your company and your teams. They're resetting expectations, and it's no longer enough to provide the tools to do a job from 9 to 5 in the office. Companies need to provide the right technology to let people work how, where and when they want. Work must be frictionless, flexible and accessible across an increasing number of devices, spaces and contexts.

Even with all these changes in the modern workforce, meetings remain central to productivity. Meetings are where decisions are made, relationships are built and business results are delivered. As a leader in this dynamic space for more than 15 years, we're committed to driving innovation for meetings in this changing landscape.
